

Places to Go, Things to Do, Stuff to Buy

Quilters By the Sea offers this information as a community service. We take no responsibility for its accuracy or timeliness. Use provided websites to find current information “direct from the horse’s mouth” so to speak.

Acacia Quilt Guild of Orange County, our sister guild! Walter D. Ehlers Community Center 1st Thursdays, 6:45pm 8150 Knott Avenue, Buena Park

Quilt Auction March 30, 2019, 11:30am-2:30pm La Habra Community Center Friendship Square Quilt Guild Admission $5.00 101 W. La Habra Blvd, La Habra
www.fsgg.org

Country Quilt Show May 3-4 Nellie Weaver Hall Inland Empire Quilt Guild 3737 Crestview Drive www.ieqg.net Norco (corner of 6th & Crestview)

Desert Blooms Quilt Show & Auction, May 18-19, 10am-4pm Antelope Valley Fairgrounds Antelope Valley Quilt Association Admission $10 Van Dam Pavilion, www.avqa.org Husbands free! 2551 West Ave H, Lancaster

Quilts for all Seasons Quilt Show, June 8-9, 10am-4pm Soka University, Flying Geese Quilters Guild 1 University Dr, Aliso Viejo
www.flying-geese.org

Thru July 28 at LACMA an exhibit called Power and Pattern: Central Asian Ikats. Not quilts but textile related. Patterns of 19th and early 20th century robes and panels influenced by the various cultures that traveled the Silk Road.
Resnick Pavilion, LA County Museum of Art, 5905 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles

Becoming America at the Huntington Library & Gardens. Exhibit of 18th and early 19th century American artworks, including needlework, ten vintage quilts (1800s). Admission $10-25
Scott Galleries, Fielding Wing, Huntington Library & gardens, 1151 Oxford Road, San Marino