Volume XXVIX Issue 1

We're Back!

Quilters by the Sea will be meeting in person

May 12, 2022 7:00-9:00pm Guild Meeting

Spring is in the air and I'm looking for May flowers!

29 years and counting! It's QBS's anniversary! Come this month to celebrate the guild's founding in 1993. There will be a party with cupcakes, games and prizes! What did you see in '93? I saw fresh, shining student faces as I taught for my fourth year. What about you?

Opportunity quilts are one of the ways guilds raise money to support their activities whether it's education through speakers and workshops, philanthropy through Community Relations' projects or just paying the rent for the meeting room. Quilters by the Sea is exceptionally lucky to have Cathe Hagerman-Beizer as our Opportunity Quilt Committee chair. While she has often made these quilts, her hard work and time is spent taking our QBS quilt to other guilds. Cathe often attends 15-20 guild meetings over the course of a year, displaying our quilt and selling raffle tickets for it. She enjoys visiting other guilds, seeing how they are organized, and listening to their speakers. Now that many guilds are back to in-person meetings, she is hitting the road again...Hemet in June just to mention one. Her regular partner in these trips is Margie Mendez whom Cathe says is wonderful at talking about our quilt to everyone who slows down to admire it as they walk by. "She's the one that gets them to stop, look, admire, and buy a ticket!" Cathe said.

In May QBS will have the first visiting Opportunity Quilt from Friendship Square Quilt Guild. Please take some time to look at their beautiful quilt, chat with them, and purchase some tickets. Their guild members have bought (or will buy) tickets for ours.

Community Relations We have 'tax free' kits to help reduce any stress. We're in a new year of trying different things. We now have some 3-yard fabric kits for you to use with whatever pattern you want. We have Layer Cake kits, Cake Recipe kits, UFOs, and we still have the easy and reliable kits Randy makes up for kids. We have a book full of patterns to help you reduce your stash, or the Guild's stash. We have quilts to be quilted and quilted quilts ready for binding and labeling. Something for everyone – we hope. If you think of something you'd like to see for Community Relations please let us know. Send your suggestions to Carollynn so we can meet your needs. Don't forget you can come shop and sew at the garage on a non-workshop Saturdays. A special thanks to those who took this quarter's donations to our charities.

We want your quilt pictures!**

One of the best things about being in a guild is seeing all the terrific things our members have made. Please be a "Showoff!" Send photos in an email to both Newsletter (Nancy Jordan) and (Dawn Lindelin) Website and include the following: your first and last names! (Please, we have 3 Sallys and lots of Lindas!) Include a short (5 sentences max!) story about each item, or collection of items, as to why you made it, or chose those colors. Was it a workshop? Who is getting it/is it going to Community Relations? Inquiring minds want to know. Please use JPEG format. Contact information for Dawn Lindelin and Nancy Jordan is in the roster.

MEMBERSHIP

Merry Jennings & Melody Doukenick

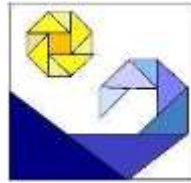

Thanks to all who have renewed their membership for this year. We are very close to the same amount as last year and that includes some who have moved but also includes new members. We were happy to honor those folks at our March meeting but, if you're new and you missed it, let us know and we'll pass along your goodies. The roster has been sent out as a 'blast' and we're confident it's all correct....well, hopeful it's all correct. But, if you see an error, let one of us know right away so we can fix the info.

Also, special thanks to Nathan Ramsey for printing our new membership cards for 2022. They are complete with your name and ready to use if a store needs I.D. for any discount, tc. These will be available at the April meeting, so see our Membership Table to get yours.

If you can't make the May meeting, we will always have them on hand. Don't forget to sign in when you arrive and get your free prize ticket for the drawing. We hear there are some pretty fun donations. Hope to see you in May, a most beautiful time of year.
