

Quilters by the Sea

Volume XXVIX Issue 7

November, 2022

Dear Quilters,

We're getting close to the end of the year. Did you keep your new year's resolutions? Do you even remember them? I don't, but I did plan to have fewer UFO's by December. I may make it! I should make it, except for all the new projects I've started! Mind you, I am not complaining.

We had a great night just hanging out and playing cards last month back in the church basement. Our first Casino Night and it was a success. "Thank you" to April and her minions for a well-organized event.

Oh, how things change over time! A home phone? Not any more. Full service gas station? I can pump my own, thank you. Flip flops were strictly for the pool or beach; now they're just about everywhere! So many other changes.

I remember when... I made cardboard templates, traced carefully (or not!) around them, and cut pieces with heavy steel scissors. Mom and I sent our finished tops a Minnesota aunt for the church group to quilt it (at $100/spool of thread). When I quilted it was on a wood frame set up in my living room, and took three weeks to finish a quilt. I totally believed that machine quilting that went all over the quilt blocks was "cheating." (My nose was stuck so far up in the air, it was amazing I didn't get a nose bleed!)

In the last few years I've recognized a few things. My grandmother, who sewed everything from men's dress shirts to wedding gowns by hand (1910s rural Minnesota), said the best was getting a sewing machine; stitches were straighter, stronger, and finished faster. I have found out the same thing about quilting. Machine stitching can be straighter and stronger, and the quilting gets done a lot faster. (Finished quilts are ones that can be used; tops just sit in a closet.) I still want to make the quilting complement the top to enhance the piecing or appliqué.

But the important things haven't changed. Neighbors and friends to help or be helped as needed. Quilters who sew for fun and entertainment, and then make generous donations through Community Relations. Members who volunteer at need. Thank you to all who make Quilters by the Sea run smoothly.

Yours in quilting, Kate

Carollynn Machado-Guarino & Randy Miller

November is upon us for our last push to get as many quilts ready to donate before the end of the year. We will only have a few weeks to prepare before our next General Meeting when the charities are presented with our final donations. You can drop off your items any non-workshop Saturday 9-5, or make special arrangements with Carollynn [562-805-8817]. You've all done a smashing great job this year and we're looking forward to making this a Special Holiday season for all.

We want your quilt pictures!**

One of the best things about being in a guild is seeing all the terrific things our members have made. Please be a "Showoff!" Send photos in an email to both Newsletter (Nancy Jordan) and (Dawn Lindelin) Website and include the following: your first and last names! (Please, we have 3 Sallys and lots of Lindas!) Include a short (5 sentences max!) story about each item, or collection of items, as to why you made it, or chose those colors. Was it a workshop? Who is getting it/is it going to Community Relations? Inquiring minds want to know. Please use JPEG format. Contact information for Dawn Lindelin and Nancy Jordan is in the roster.

Cathedral by Teri Meggers. All three quilts were quilted by Sewing Escape.

Quilt by Kate Weber

These two quilts were shared by Cindy Marlok. This green one is a vintage quilt by an unknown quilter from Ohio

This quilt is Mrs. Millers Apprentice (Nightmare). It was her summer and fall 2020 Covid lockdown quilt. This quilt and the one on the next page were both quilted by Madeline Sema.

This quilt is also by Cindy Marlok. Granpa Geroge's Cabin in plaids and browns.

Two Charity quilts by Jo Melis. The one on the left is Confetti and the one on the right is Knot Today.

Jo Melis made this Disappearing Cats quilt to be donated to the guild for sale at the Quilt Show.

She liked it so much she made herself a placemat.

Carol Beliso made these two quilts. The one on the left is Disney Villains in lattice work. The one on the right has Vintage Horror movies posters in the center. She used only fabric from her stash for this one. Both quilts were quilted by Annette Morales.

Halloween Stars by Edyth Henrickson. Fabrics for this quilt were part of a Halloween fabric exchange .
Quilted by Cindy Kruze.

The Following Quilts are From the President's Halloween Challenge

I attended an event by invitation from TINA CURRAN.
She did a trunk show for our Guild a few months ago.
She belongs to the Glendale Guild.

Tina who is an Outstanding Quilter was an Artist showing her fine work at the Craft & Art Show in Beverly Hills this past weekend.

I am sending a pic of her standing in her booth that I took.
Just wanted to share.
