

Quilters by the Sea

Volume XXVIX Issue 6

October, 2022

Happy Halloween, Quilters!

This is probably my favorite month. It may be because I'm a "weber" (spiders and things that make us go "Eek!") or simply that I won first place at a Halloween Parade dressed as a witch when I was four! I've been told I was the only witch that had a broom. I think it was because I was just too darn cute! Anyway, it is a fun and easy holiday to celebrate and decorate.

Congratulations to Marlene Winn who won our Halloween Delight Opportunity Quilt. Included in the newsletter is a photo of it on proud display. It is the first thing you see coming into Marlene's home. Her decorating has a great head start! Thank you, Cathe and crew, for displaying our quilt to the other guilds.

October is a change up from our usual speaker It's Vegas time, Ladies and Gents! April has organized night using fat quarters in lieu of cash or chips. This is everyone! Guests need not be members or even to sew! I've given flyers to my neighbors. Extra incentive? There will be a drawing for the non-guild member to make their winnings into a quilt! Keep your eyes peeled for the Before Meeting Blast. Important info will be coming!

Finally, "Thank you" to our wonderful members who volunteered to be nominated for the 2023 QBS Board. They were elected unanimously by the voters. We cannot operate without their dedication to QBS. Please volunteer your help when they ask for it (or even before they ask!).

Have a spook-tacular month,

Kate

(P.S. Anyone want to volunteer to write these letters for me in 2023? LOL!)

We're rounding the corner of the 3rd quarter and ready for another set of donations to be delivered. Please let me know if you want to visit one of our 6 charities and be part of the delivery team. Knowing the response we get is so heart-warming, it's a joy to see. And with the next quarter in mind, we hope to see a great turn out for the workshop. Whether you sew on a label or make a top, every bit helps. If you need fabric, please let me know at least the weekend before the workshop, so just come on by on a Saturday to do your own shopping. Can't beat the price [thanks to all our donors].

We want your quilt pictures!**

One of the best things about being in a guild is seeing all the terrific things our members have made. Please be a "Showoff!" Send photos in an email to both Newsletter (Nancy Jordan) and (Dawn Lindelin) Website and include the following: your first and last names! (Please, we have 3 Sallys and lots of Lindas!) Include a short (5 sentences max!) story about each item, or collection of items, as to why you made it, or chose those colors. Was it a workshop? Who is getting it/is it going to Community Relations? Inquiring minds want to know. Please use JPEG format. Contact information for Dawn Lindelin and Nancy Jordan is in the roster.

MEMBERSHIP NEWSLETTER SEPT. 2022

Dear quilters,

In a couple of months it will be time for you to renew your membership in QBS. We encourage you to use the online option rather than filling out the form and mailing. It's simple, quick and an easy way for us to keep track of your membership. Use a debit card or credit card for the $35 fee. Please update any information that may have changed. You might also want to check the most current roster to see that our info is accurate.

We do ask that you wait until January 2023 to renew your membership so that our Treasurer, Lori Davies, isn't bombarded with too many chores. Thanks for all your support and we look forward to another fun filled quilting year.

Please also stop by the membership table to welcome our new Membership board member Charlotte Lee.

From Merry

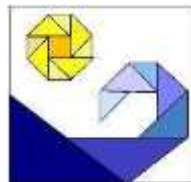

On a personal note, I am now in Humboldt, KS, waiting for the escrow to close on my house in South Gate. They required a 'pre sale' inspection that showed a number of objections with the city due to a lack of building permits. The buyer has agreed to take care of the necessary repairs but we need an amount in order to credit them and that's where the problem arises. Seems all the contractors are busy and now it's wait and wait. All my personal possessions are on the 26 ft. U-Haul truck waiting to unload. So it's wait and wait again. Fortunately for a small town they are kind enough to 'rent' the truck daily so I don't have to unload, store the contents, then load and unload at the house I'm trying to buy. Yes, it gets a little frustrating but I think each day I'll hear something so I can get on with my life.

In the meantime, I think of you all and hope all is going well for you. I'll be in touch,

Happy quilting,

OPPORTUNITY QUILT 2022 – WINNER!

At our September meeting, if you weren't there, I asked Linda Jones, our guest speaker and friend from SewVac to draw the winning ticket from the box, and here you see the very excited and happy winner, Marlene Winn of Irvine, CA. Marlene is an experienced sewer, but a new quilter, having just begun making quilts for her grandchildren a couple years ago, with the help of classes at Orange Quilt Bee. She is also especially fond of decorating for the Halloween holiday, so was thrilled to win "Halloween Delight" by our own Kate Weber.

Congratulations! to Marlene, and our thanks for supporting QBS every year by buying tickets (from me!) even before being bitten by the quilting bug.

Another travel Adventure with Barbee Tidball

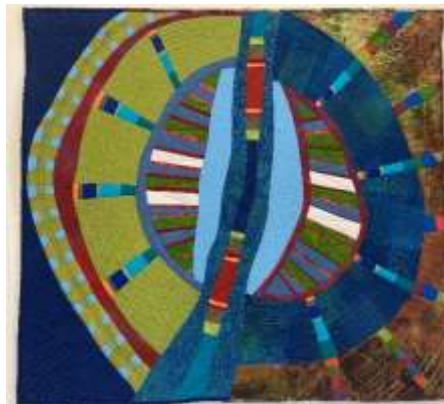

A road trip up the Pacific Coast is a beautiful journey and this time we augmented our travels with a stop at an old favorite, the Latimer Quilt and Textile Center in Tillamook, Oregon and a new favorite the Pacific Northwest Quilt & Fiber Arts Museum in La Conner, Washington. Latimer (latimerquiltandtextile.com) has on site work rooms for quilters and weavers as well as an exhibit space. I met a weaver who travels to Tillamook for the opportunity to weave with other enthusiasts/artists a couple weeks in the summer. In the sewing room I rummaged thru a few boxes of donated fabric and chatted with quilters working on hand projects.

The highlight at Latimer was their summer exhibit including a variety of very textured art and colorful quilts. There were fabric bowls using quilting techniques that were very intriguing, and the thread painting on quilts like the dancers above, gave the quilt a very graceful kinetic dimension.

Made for Swimming by Jerri Stroud and Cell Series #2: Permability Problems by Barbara Ramsy

I made two visits to LaConner, Washington and each time visited the Pacific Northwest museum (www.qfamuseum.org). LaConner is an old river fishing town with lots of shops and good places to relax over oysters and a glass of wine or fish & chips with a beer. Three exhibits were on display, The Essence of Japan with works by Japanese quilters; another exhibit featured art quilts from the Contemporary Quilt Art Association and there was a fiber art exhibit intertwined with quilt displays.
