

Quilters by the Sea

Volume XXVIX Issue 8

December, 2022

Happy Holidays to All Members and their families,

What a year we've had. Zoom meetings and workshops morphing into in-person meetings but in a different location at the church. Arranging and rearranging ourselves in McPhearson Chapel and eventually realizing that the basement was better for just about everything except cell phone service-better lighting, more space, just better. [Of course, we're still working on the sound equipment and storage issues, but with time and patience, they're solvable issues.]

Wow! That sounds like quilt making to me. Arrange blocks, rearrange them, finally realize that what you've got is good even with a few minor problems yet to be solved (I didn't know that red fabric was going to run, color catchers to the rescue!).

And isn't that a reflection on life in general. We have living and work arrangements, a family and a job. Then the son moves across the country, the daughter heads away to college, retirement, births and deaths all causing us to rearrange our lives. Sometimes, things don't fit as well as they had, but we work out the problems (remember the color catchers?) and life goes on.

Looking ahead to 2023, we have a good schedule of programs and workshops. The new trifold of programs and workshops will be available at the guild meeting. Many favorite activities and a few new ones planned, too! [After Quilters University on November, I know we'll be having another Round Robin.]

Our last meeting will be a celebration of a return to our "normal," a party! All food and beverages will be provided by the guild. [No last-minute pot luck runs for chicken or potato salad!]

Thank you, again, for a wonderful quilting year.

Kate Weber

Carollynn Machado-Guarino & Randy Miller

We want to welcome the representatives of our charity groups. They will have an opportunity to tell their stories of how they help families in our community and the part we plan in that big picture. We will present the 4th quarter donations of 96 Quilts and Afghans. This will bring the total donations up to 532 quilts, afghans, pillowcases and other fabric items. They will also receive fabric books [for which the total is still pending]. We have started collecting for next quarter as we hold the sanitized quilts for 2 weeks before donation. Just to make sure any compromised individual is not exposed to allergens, or contaminates.

In addition to a great charity finale, we will be added a new program in January to give our member more access to the items donated to QBS.

“Fabric and Notions” will be packaging and making available to all QBS members ‘Curated Collections’ of donated fabric. These will be for sale at the Library. The Raffle Table will have notions and sewing related items as well. There will be yardage, strip sets, layer cakes, and double charm packs to name a few. These collections can be purchased at the Library for $5 & $10. The minimum quantity and type of cuts will be on the labels.

So plan on bringing your five and ten dollars to the January meeting, along with your membership dues.

Community Relations will continue providing kits, and access to the free fabric at the garage.

MEMBERSHIP

Merry Jennings, Melody Doukenick & Charlotte Lee

Season's Greetings one and all,

Seems like we were just saying that very thing last month. But, Old Father Time certainly has a way of sneaking up on you. Your Membership Board would like to thank each and every one of you for your support this past year. We've had a few changes, a few additions but an overall wonderful feeling being able to serve you.

Your new board will be taking over in January but here's a last minute reminder. Your dues of $35 are due the first of the new year. Please don't pay in advance since it throws off our bookkeeping system. You are welcome to pay online through the website or you can send your renewal check by snail mail to our home address. Please also be sure to let us know of any changes in the information we have for you such as address, phone, email, birthday, etc. If there are no changes and all info we have is correct, we just need your renewal amount.

Again, we thank you for your cooperation. 2022 has been quite a year but we've managed to get through it with all your help.

Happy quilting,

Merry Jennings, Melody Doukenick, Charlotte Lee

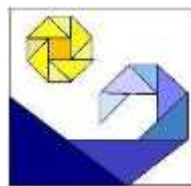

On a personal note, I'd also like to thank one and all for your kind thoughts and wishes during my relocation to Humboldt, KS. My house in California finally closed escrow and I've been able to buy a home here right next door to my son and family. My new place is a split level which allows me to convert a downstairs bedroom into my sewing studio. I never thought I'd ever be so lucky to have this experience and was perfectly content with my 12x12 CA room. Now all I have to do is figure out where to store my stash and maybe even get in a little sewing. Best wishes to Quilters by the Sea. You have surrounded me with love and caring and for that I will always be thankful.

Blessings one and all,
Merry Jennings

Susan Nash

Sewing Machine Collage

Susan Nash will bring her incredible eye for patterns and fabrics to this fabric collage workshop.

The sewing machine is the only design collage at this workshop. We know Susan has several collage projects. In the interests of clarity, Susan will be focusing only on the sewing machine collage at this workshop.

February 11

Jo Melis 3D Cubes

(54" x 68")

The 3D Cube quilt is an interesting variation of the tumbling block pattern. The cube effect is caused by the positioning of the light, medium, and dark fabrics. The best results are achieved when there is a strong light/medium/dark contrast.

Workshop Opportunity

Friendship Square Quilt Guild in Fullerton is presenting a Sandy Corbin workshop: "My Basket Collection" quilt on Tuesday, January 17, 2023, 9am-3pm

Fee workshop is $30, with an additional materials fee as yet undetermined.

For more information, or to register for class, please contact us at: fsqqquiltguild@aol.com

Deadline to register is Dec. 31, 2022 at St. Paul Lutheran Church, 111 W. Las Palmas Ave, Fullerton.

You will provide the item to be embroidered. The cost for the embroidery is $15.

I am happy to take your items to Name Your Game and get them back to you OR you can take them in yourself.
