June 10

Jo Melis - One Block Wonder

Our own Jo will be giving instruction on laying out, cutting and assembling a one-block wonder I have had sign-ups for quite a while so make sure you sign up

Carollynn Machado-Guarino

This month we are pleased to welcome 3 of our charities to join our Guild's Birthday celebration. We will be presenting each with this quarter's quilts and a cash donation. Below is a brief introduction to the organizations. I'm sure they will share a few heart- warming stories to re-enforce the benefit of your supportive efforts.

'New Life Beginnings' supports homeless pregnant women with children, victims of human trafficking, and woman of domestic violence.

'For the Child' helps young people develop the skills to overcome childhood trauma, abuse, neglect, violence, and / or the results of family dysfunction.

The 'Woman's Shelter of Long Beach' helps victims of domestic violence by providing resources and psychological support.

Thanks to those who give so much of their time in making quilts and supporting our fund raising efforts.

Check out photos of some of the donated quilts at the end of Show and Tell.

*QBS received an email from a lady named Sandra with the following:****

I just wanted to thank you. My grandson was in foster care and when he arrived at my home, he was wrapped in one of your quilts. It was a beautiful blue color on one side with a label on it. Thank you for all you do. It's much appreciated.

It's your turn to bring goodies. Please bring enough nibbles for a dozen or so.

Nibbles can be cookies, chips, fruit, and so forth. Yes, store bought is just fine.

Don't stress, just take your turn. Thanks.

NEWS FROM THE GUILD LIBRARY

Pam Plakos & Lyndell Darby

As always we are taking donations of magazines and books. Please find a new home for any of those items that are older than 10 years. (Check the publication dates, please) The books and magazines must be less than 10 years old.

Please stop by the library to take advantage of our birthday specials. Happy birthday to us!

Stay safe and keep quilting...

Newsletter articles are due on the 20th of every month to Nancy Jordan at nhjordan@msn.com. Please put Newsletter and next month in the subject line and please include your name in the email so you can get proper credit for your article. Thank you.

Many thanks to our hard working members who volunteer their time and talents to make our guild great, especially those who contribute to Community Relations every year.

???DID YOU KNOW???

The space between your eyebrows is called a glabella?

The way it smells after the rain is called Petrich or?

The plastic or metallic coating at the end of your shoelaces is called an aglet?

Parliamentarian Report

QBS elections will take place in September 2023, at our Annual Business Meeting.

We need everyone to take an active role in making our guild the best it can be.

I will need volunteers for the Nominating Committee. The committee comprises me as chairperson, one board member, two guild members, and two alternates. The committee will meet in late May to divide up the roster and begin making phone calls to all members to gauge interest in holding an elected office.

Please let me know ASAP by email (bettysewfine@gmail.com), or phone 714 349-0994, if you are interested. Your role on the committee will be to call members to fill our elected board seats. The elected positions are:

President

VP Programs

VP Workshops

Secretary

Treasurer

Membership Chair

Internal Auditor

Special Events Chair

If you're interested in supporting your guild by being part of the Nominating Committee, or holding an elected or appointed position don't wait for us to contact you, please contact Dawn Lindelin via phone or email. This is a wonderful guild we have and the more involved you become the more fun you'll have!

Round Robin

Bring the projects you've been working on and trade them for another! If the project bag you have is missing a contract sheet with the border/row specifications, please print the matching contract and include with the project bag.

OPPORTUNITY 2023 QUILT WINNER

Our own member Dorothy Foral won the quilt on Saturday April 24, 2023 at the Quilt Faire!!

New Opportunity Quilt Travel 2023

Thursday, July 27 - Nite Owl Quilters Guild, Upland - 6:00 p.m.

This is a great publicity opportunity for our guild.

Jelly Roll Race

Melody and Signe are going to be QBS's Jelly Roll Race Team at the LA County Fair in May, 2023. They could use 1 or 2 more team members, though! Check with them directly.

Races will be held on Fridays, 11:30am-1:30pm between teams of 2-guilds (each race). The winners of those races will return for a sew-off on the last Friday of the fair.

Team members will get free admission and parking to the fair on the day of the fair. You are free to visit the fair after the race.

Jelly Rolls provided and may have JUKI sewing machines provided, too!

So not much for you to bring besides yourself!

*We want your quilt pictures!**

One of the best things about being in a guild is seeing all the terrific things our members have made. Please be a "Showoff!" Send photos in an email to both Newsletter (Nancy Jordan) and (Dawn Lindelin) Website and include the following: your first and last names! (Please, we have 3 Sallys and lots of Lindas!) Include a short (5 sentences max!) story about each item, or collection of items, as to why you made it, or chose those colors. Was it a workshop? Who is getting it/is it going to Community Relations? Inquiring minds want to know. Please use JPEG format. Contact information for Dawn Lindelin and Nancy Jordan is in the roster.

If you submit your quilt photo, it will be published in the next issue. Please send the photos to nhjordan@msn.com with show and tell in the subject line. Or you can send the photos to my cell. The number is in the roster. Try to get them in by the 20th. Thank you for your contributions, keep them coming for every month. Please use JPEG format. And now, contributions from our busy members.

The Show and Tell form is included in this newsletter so you can print it out and fill it out before the meeting if you wish.

PLEASE NOTE:

This year, we will be limiting your show and tell items, at the guild meeting, to a maximum of two. You will still need to fill out the form at the meeting, from the newsletter, or download it from the website.

Looking forward to seeing all those projects this year,

Teri, Pam, and Lyndell

Jo Melis made another One Block Wonder with this Disney/Kinkadee panel. The also pieced and quilted rha Thimble Blossoms pattern with poor counts of pieces needed.

Alan Calgaro made these two quilts. The one on the left is “Checkered Stripes”. The one on the right is “Water Lilies “. Both still need quilting to be finished.

These two quilts are from Kate Weber. The one on the left is “Blue Mood” tumbling blocks. The one on the right is “Glass Jaguar” and made for her nephew Cameron, from jeans and T-shirts sent from his mom. Both quilts were pieced and quilted by Kate.

More “Show and Tell” quilts sent in by members

The three quilts , including bottom left are from Jo Melis. The ones on the left are the same quilt, just front and back. The front on point squares are made from 2 ½ “ strips. The quilt on the right is a Mod Squad quilt. Both were made pieced and quilted by Jo and are destined for Community Relations.

This quilt was pieced by Patti Paschall and was started in Jo Melis workshop. It still needs borders before it's complete.

Dear Quilters By the Sea Leadership Team,

Congratulations on your event this weekend! We hope our efforts to share the information provided both on our website and Instagram feed helped bring attention to the wonderful work QBS does in our community.

Long Beach Modern Quilt Guild is delighted to share that our annual exhibit of modern quilts returns this May. Last year's exhibit was well attended with visitors traveling from as far away as Sacramento, San Diego, and the Inland Empire and well received. We hope that your guild will join us again this year in celebrating our mutual love of quilting in our Southern California community.

"Perspectives 2023 – A Fiber Art Exhibition" will be on display in the Zena and Pauline Gatov Gallery at the Alpert Jewish Community Center in Long Beach, California starting May 3, 2023. The exhibit is free and open to the public during regular Alpert JCC business hours through to May 30.

You're Invited!

LBMQG invites your members to join us for a special "Meet the Artist" reception on Tues, May 9 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. We look forward to this great opportunity to be with fellow quilters and enjoy refreshments. Please note, while our reception is open to the general public, we are only advertising it with our special guild friends in Southern California. We would love to connect with fellow quilters. Please share this information with your guild members. To make it easy for your guild, we have provided several ways to get the word out. I hope you find this approach helpful.

- If you are meeting in person and would like bookmarks or flyers for your next meeting, please email us and we'll make arrangements to get them to you in time.
- If you use a slideshow as a part of your guild meeting presentation, here is a slide to include in your deck
- If you have a newsletter going out, below is some text we hope will cut and paste easily for your format

If you're interested, and the schedule lines up – let us know if you would like one of our members to drop in on your meeting to share details about our exhibit and be on hand to answer any questions.

Special Favor to Ask

We would love it if you shared our news broadly. We have several different formats pre-filled and ready for customization to your taste and style, depending on what works for your guild. This is a great way to reach an even bigger community in addition to your guild. We have this information at our web press kit link for your convenience.

In closing, we thank you in advance for your support of our guild. We hope you'll join us at the reception on May 9 and find time to visit our exhibit in May. We're thrilled to share quilts in Southern California with you.

Regards,

Sandra Scheiber Johnson
