

IN LOVING MEMORY OF NANCY JORDAN

Nancy Jordan was a lover of creative quilting techniques. She taught classes for SewVac Ltd. on Clark. Her students loved her; she had a nice way of being. She enjoyed attending quilting retreats with her friends. She participated in the Wednesday quilting group "Sandy's Secrets Sewing Class" at El Dorado Park Rec Center. Sometimes she filled in as teacher of the class for Sandy S. Nancy taught herself free motion quilting and became quite good at it.

Nancy taught elementary school for many years until retirement, after which she became even more involved in her love of all things quilting.

Nancy is survived by her two daughters: Cathy and Christi. She also has 3 grandchildren.

Nancy was an active member of QBS and will be greatly missed. Our condolences are extended to her family and friends.

Condolences can be sent to the family via:

Cathy Digney

Long Beach, CA 90807

Nancy's memorial service is being planned for Saturday, October 14, 2023 at Grace First Presbyterian Church.

More details will follow.

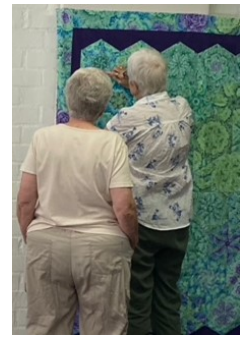

Kate Weber

Dear Quilters,

Summer is coming to a close. Kids/grandkids are back in school and our thoughts start turning to getting presents ready to go under the tree in December.

August has been a lazier month for some of us with the exception of Hilary coming for a visit. What a crazy July! I'm not sure what to say here. We scheduled an interesting speaker and workshop and only had three sign-ups. The last minute cancellation could have been a financial bomb but Lynn Pillus gracefully allowed us to cancel without a fee. Then it was scrambling to organize what the guild would offer instead. Jelly roll race to the rescue for the meeting (see photos) and a fabulous "open sew" on Saturday: personal projects, Community Relations kits, and a follow-up One Block Wonder session with the inestimable Jo M.

This brings me back to scheduled programs, workshops, and balancing the budget. In February we discussed (via Zoom) the guild's expenses and income. The result was an acknowledgment that dues will increase in the new year and we will look in our own backyard for speakers and workshop leaders. Members have stepped up and we almost have our calendar set for 2024. Thank you for donating your time and sharing your knowledge with us.

Reprise from February - Speaking of money, have you sold your Opportunity Quilt tickets? This is a major fundraiser for our guild. Income from this raffle alone pays for about 25-30% of our operating expenses. These funds help to pay for renting the church for meetings and workshops. Please turn in money and ticket stubs to Cathe HB.

A new schedule has been set to align our Opportunity Quilt raffle with our quilt shows; the drawing will be held at the April guild meeting or the biennial quilt show.

Road to California – Please note the SCCQG Call for Entries for 2024 RD2CA in this newsletter. Unlike the major exhibits at Road, this exhibit is entirely home grown. Entries are not in competition with others from all over the country so you have a good chance of being able to say "I had a quilt exhibited at Road." But you will never say that if you don't enter! Photos are required to be sent with your entry. NOW is the time to take Trudy Cleveland's "Shoot Your Quilt" workshop so your entry photo is compelling to the exhibit curator!

Yours, Kate

Trudy Cleveland - "Shoot Your Quilt"

More info about Trudy at trudycleveland.com

Limited enrollment!

Workshop fee $35 members and non-members

Register online at www.quiltersbythesea.com

Most of us share our quilts with photos posted on social media. We also use our photos to submit quilts for quilt show exhibits. Get the best photos of your quilting projects (and grandkids!) using your smart phone, and lighting and editing tricks. Trudy will teach you how.

Trudy gave this workshop to Arcadia Quilt Guild. A workshop participant, who curates quilts for some of the big shows, said many quilts are accepted or rejected based on the entry photos submitted. The curator said the photos often did not do justice to the quilts. Good photos can conceivably get a quilt exhibited where a so-so photo may get it passed over.

Each participant will get one-on-one time with Trudy learning to photograph your quilt! Sign-up early to save your place!

Supply list: Smartphone and your quilt/wall hanging.

It's your turn to bring goodies. Please bring enough nibbles for a dozen or so. Nibbles can be cookies, chips, fruit, and so forth. Yes, store bought is just fine.

Don't stress, just take your turn. Thanks.

What an exciting month. Not only are we electing a new Board for 2024, but we are ready to deliver more quilts to our charities. We'll be sending out invitations for them to join us in December for our 'Dessert Bar' holiday celebration. I'm positive we'll have met our 350 quilt goal. We're at 317 now. Please keep your works of art and love coming in. They, and you, make a huge difference.

Open Sew

These are not QBS events, this is For Your Information only.

El Dorado Senior Center (2800 Studebaker, Long Beach) does have a quilting room set up every Wednesday, 9am-1pm. Room comes with irons and ironing boards, otherwise take your own stuff. Plenty of big tables for spreading out projects.

Burns Community Center (5510 Clark Ave, Lakewood) has a room set aside for quilting with tables on the last Wednesday of the month, 9am-1pm. BUT Kate was also told no one has shown up for the last two months. She will be going on August 30 to see what the set up is. Anyone want to join Kate?

SMALL GROUP WORKSHOPS:

“I have an idea about members helping members...” she said.

Is there a project that you really wanted to do but then put off because it just seemed too complicated? Did you get into the middle of it and want to toss it? You pushed through and suddenly it didn't seem quite as complicated anymore? You can help others now!

Or do you want to try a difficult pattern but not by yourself? Want some friends while you try a pattern?

Would you be willing to shepherd a small group through the same project? (Think once a week for 4-8 weeks, or 3 days in a row for 3 hours, etc.)?

If your answer is “Yes!”, or even a tentative “Maybe...”, please complete and send to quiltersbythesea@gmail.com with subject line Small Group Workshops.

Name _____ Email _____

Project(s) you want to teach OR want to work on with others- (ex: Wander's Wife, Tumbling 3D Cubes)

Duration _____ (ex: 3 hrs x 1/week x 6 weeks)

Location _____ (ex: your house, Sew Sew Saturdays, QBS Workshop room*)

_____ *only available 1/mo

How many members can attend? _____ (ex: 1-3, min. of 3, ...)

Would you want remuneration? NO. We'll just work together to get it done. (Donate to QBS?)

YES. Amount? _____ (ex. $10)

Be as specific and detailed as possible about the project class

Specifics & details:

- Group objective: make blocks, learn technique, finish a component/whole quilt top, etc
- How much room is there?
- Getting sewing tools to location
- Note that QBS does not authorize or suggest photocopying © material-buy the pattern/book!

2024 Opportunity Quilt "Stepping Into Spring" Cathe Hagerman-Beizer

This beautiful quilt top was donated by Linda Monsen and quilted by Joyce Allen. "Stepping Into Spring" is queen size (89"x 89") and the pattern ("BlockStep") and Moda fabrics are both by designer Robin Pickens. The drawing for the quilt will be held April 11, 2024; tickets are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. Winner need not be present to win. Tickets are available from QBS members or by contacting Cathe Hagerman-Beizer, Opportunity Quilt Chair at catherhb@yahoo.com.

Below are dates already scheduled for us to visit other guilds with our quilt, for display and to sell tickets. Any member interested in going along is welcome to contact Cathe by email, text or phone, to arrange to do that. The 2024 QBS Opportunity Quilt will have a newly appointed chair, and this is an opportunity to find out more about what that position involves, and to see if it's a committee you'd like to be a part of in 2024
