August 2024

By Brandi Kelly-Contreras

Happy August fellow QBSers! as a reminder, this month we are dark - No meeting.

For those of you going to retreat, I look forward to seeing you there. Lori has some fun things planned for us. Keep a watch out for emails from Lori for updates. I, for one, bring so much stuff that I think I'm going to get to, but of course I don't. Just in case you happen to forget something, there is always the shop, or your fellow quilter may have your back. Point is, we are about to have some relaxing fun with our friends.

If you attended our July meeting, we had a last minute change from the church that moved us to the classroom upstairs where we have our workshops. We had enough room for us and our visitors, the Night owls quilt guild, showing off their opportunity quilt.

I would love to hear your thoughts on whether we stay in the basement or ask for that classroom? Please email me with your thoughts or concerns. See roster for email.

Since we aren't meeting in August, when we meet in September there will be the Red Hen and elections. Please read your newsletters for all the latest happenings.

Enjoy your sewing time.

Special points of interest:

Our guest speaker for July, Sonia Das, provided us with a helpful information sheet (here) and a comprehensive program explaining the function of the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds. SCCQG plays an important role for numerous quilt guilds throughout Southern California. One of the critical provisions of SCCQG is to offer a group insurance policy that covers liability insurance for guilds. They also provide a program called “Meet The Teachers” that introduces teachers/presenters to the guilds called. SCCQG additionally offers a quarterly newsletter that can help promote each guild to the other member guilds. They also have website postings that show quilt guild programs and quilt shows in order to eliminate scheduling conflicts.

Thank you Sonia for your presentation.

August – Dark

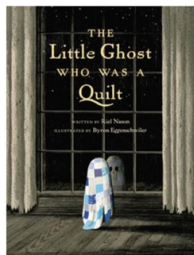

September 14 - Hexies and Christmas English Paper Piecing with Dr. Deb Belcher.

The history of English Paper Piecing goes back to the 1770's. It became very popular in England during the early 1800's. A list of what you'll need will be made available as we get closer to the workshop.

Dr. Deb is also working on a small "kit" for the basic design, so you don't have to buy 100 hexie forms and other bits! If you have any questions about this workshop, you can contact her – use the roster!

October 12 – The Little Ghost Who Was a Quilt with Lori

Davies.
Make a quilt that reflects the main character of this story. Add the book to make a great gift for your favorite trick-or-treater!

Although this is a no fee workshop, please register online so we have an accurate participant count.

November 16 – Wallet Making with Lori Davies.

Do you need a last minute Christmas gift or a gift for someone in the new year? RFID fabric will be provided to protect credit cards.

December 14 - Open Sew By Demand.

Community Relations' [CR] donations totaled 291 quilts as the second quarter of the year closes. Please check the status board on the table for the most accurate count, and a description of the charities we support.

The written description of the Participation Raffle process is available at the Membership table and the CR table detailing the months when Gift Certificates will be available. At every meeting at least one gift will be awarded. Get your name in as often as possible. Remember to come to Sew So Saturday with donations to increase your odds of winning. Let's see how many tickets we can draw this month.

Please come to the table, not only to deliver your donations, but to pick up quilts in progress, as well as labels, color catchers and clear bags for those who pre-wash their donations. If you need batting, please contact Kathy Peysar, who is kindly storing the batting.

Sew So Saturday will be open all Saturdays in August. All are welcome. Bring your projects, knitting or whatever you're working on. It's a time to socialize and enjoy just sharing our time together.

The following letters from our supported charities show how much your efforts are appreciated.

c/o Carollynn Machado-Guarino and Lori Davis

Dear Friends at Quilters by the Sea,

All of us at For The Child are grateful for your generous donation of $300.00 (Check # 1259 on 6/1/2024).

Your gift will be used to provide mental health care, court advocacy, and other support services for uninsured children and teens who come to our Child Abuse & Neglect Safety Net Program for help. June is a busy time as we plan workshops and family support activities to give children and teens the support they need, along with their therapy, during the summer break from school.

We are thankful to everyone who has helped sewing hundred of adorable stuffed animals so that we can share them with children safely!

Summer also brings exciting news for our future! Construction will begin this month to expand our facility at 4565 California Avenue to add a new wing with 2,299 square feet. This will give space for five more therapists, interns, and a case manager, increasing our ability to serve 100+ additional children and teens by the end of 2025. The need is especially great for young teens since the pandemic, with a growing number sexually assaulted or trafficked in crimes that begin with predators connecting with victims on social media. The building expansion is funded by a lead gift from the John Gogian Family Foundation, and major gifts from the Keck and Ahmanson Foundation, along with support from Boeing Employees and other private donors.

We are thankful for your donation and for sharing our mission as we celebrate 50 Years of Service and look ahead to the future needs of children and teens in our community.

With gratitude,

Sunshine and Shadows by Dr. Deb Belcher

We wish to express our deepest sympathy and condolences to Carole Jurado for her Dad's passing while in Hospice. Margie Mendez has moved to a care facility due to her worsening MS. On notes of Sunshine: Janet Deitzmen's cat is doing better. Carollynn Machado's grandson, through her husband Bob, is getting married. If you have Sunshine or Shadows to report, please let me know (contact info in the roster).

Show and Tell By Carole Jurado and Dorothy Foral

Alan Calgaro

“Gold Christmas” (July’s theme)

Our VP is true to our July Theme - "Christmas in July". This is a very complicated pattern and Alan is gifting this quilt to his Mother. He also quilted it himself. Amazing work and color combinations.

Brenda Biggart

“Fall Twisted Posies”

Brenda made her quilt as part of her Tuesday Mornings Quilt Group. She made the blocks while attending the Glen Retreat. Longarmed by Annette Morales.

Marc Hyatt

“Denim Pockets”

Mark used his own Levi Strauss jeans he wore from the 1990's to create and repurpose vintage clothing into useful items in these modern times. Mark did research and used the official thread color from Levi's for the stitching and "Denim Pockets" was given a new life. He also did the long arm quilting on his quilt. A very clever idea.

Carol Beliso

“Twisted Posies”

Carol may have also twisted some of her quilting friends into the making of another "Twisted Posies" pattern. She is gifting this rainbow of colors quilt to her beloved granddaughter. Annette Morales did the longarm quilting.

Thanks to all the participants! Without your beautiful quilts there would be no Show & Tell.

The theme for September is Western/Southwestern Design.

Dorothy acknowledges, and sends a huge “THANK YOU”, to Dr. Deb Belcher for filling in for both Carol & herself at our guild meeting for July. Dr. Deb truly saved this month's post. Dr. Deb, your pics are Fabulous!!!! Also, to Randy Miller for collecting the forms.

Brad Dumm
"Diamonds"

Brad Dumm made this quilt called "Diamonds" while attending a retreat with the Queen of the quilting world, Eleanor Burns. The diamonds are all on point. The colors and their placement are perfect. A treasure to keep forever. Madeline Serna did the longarm quilting for Brad.

Joyce Allen (July's theme)
"Serena Star Fusion"

She found this pattern in "The Block Maker II for Half-Rectangle Triangles". Her wonderful choice of fabric colors and intricate pattern pieces are truly amazing and a show stopper! Joyce also did the longarm quilting.

Brad Dumm
"Stars" (July's theme)

He proudly displays his winning blocks, so wonderfully scattered together. Madeline Serna did his longarm quilting.

Linda Fowler

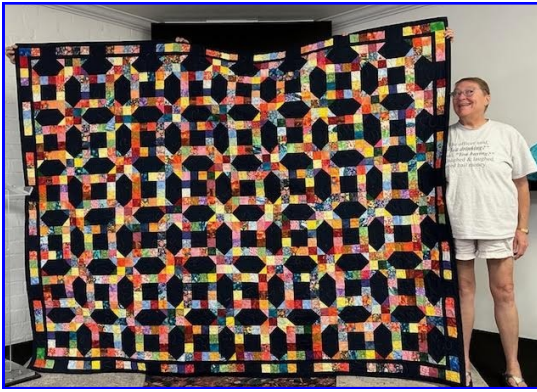

Linda proudly shows her 4 Quilted Postcards from the workshop Signe Kaleel presented to our guild. Signe was a great instructor and brought a ton of trims, tips, and fun for all in attendance.

Linda's landscapes are wonderfully captured in just 4" X 6".

Continued

Jo Melis

“Wedding Ring Want-a-be”

Jo's wonderful balance of the colors and her sense of humor matches her remark, "Always a bridesmaid, never a bride....". Quilted by Jo and her work is always impeccable.

Teri Meggers (July's theme)

“Patriotic Stars”

Last month's BOM

Teri wonderfully balanced and quilted this quilt.

Teri Meggers

“Soliloquy”

Teri Meggers quilt is truly a mind blower! What a totally remarkable 3D designed pattern she created with the chains locked into each other. Wow!!!

Teri always amazes us. Annette Morales did Teri's longarm stitching.

Kim Snow (absent)

“Stars and Stripes”

Last month's BOM (July's theme)

Kim went beyond the call of duty with her fabulous block of the month creating her masterpiece. Quilted by Joyce Allen. Kim is donating it to Community Relations.

Randy Miller

"Arcadia"

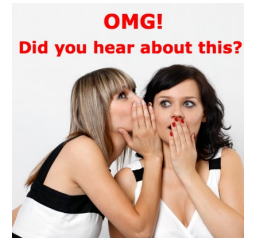

Randy whipped up another favorite color combo with her many blues and yellows. She found the Moda floral fabrics in Big Bear. She is gifting it to Marina Kings. Angela Dean did her longarm stitching.

Studio Tour by Alan Calgario

We had a short presentation to get our members inspired to share their creative spaces with us for the October program, titled Studio Tours. Marc provided some photos and a few stories that I was able to put into the presentation that was shared at the meeting. Please finish tidying up your space and sending photos and your story to me so we can have a fun program in October. My email is in the roster.

Intraguild BOM by Alan Calgaro

As was previously reported in the blast, we did not have a new block introduced in July, but would still had our drawing for the Split 9-Patch block from June. We had a great response and were able to hand out 3 sets of the blocks. The lucky recipients were Brandi, Sharron Richardson and Dawn Lindelin. Each winner was also supplied with a half yard of the multi-colored focus fabric.

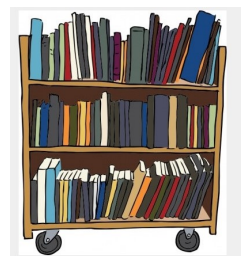

We did introduce the special block for Brandi's President's Quilt. We passed out kits and instructions to the members that were in attendance on Thursday. Extra kits and instructions will be available at Carolynn's after Saturday 7/20. We would like to have each member complete one of the blocks and add a message/signature with embroidery or permanent marker. The blocks need to be completed and turned in at the September or October general meeting.
